The Rosebuds to Rock for the Durham Arts Council Benefit Concert Kicks Off Live Music at Golden Belt

April 14, 2009, Durham, NC- Favorite local indie rockers The Rosebuds are headlining a special concert at Golden Belt benefitting the Durham Arts Council.

The Merge Records recording artists and Raleigh natives are teaming up with Durham-based bluegrass duo Midtown Dickens and Chapel Hill's premier folk/classical orchestra, Lost in the Trees—showcasing a broad representation of musical stylings from the Triangle's three main hubs.

100% of net proceeds from the rock show will go support burgeoning creatives, arts organizations, and arts programming in Durham and the Triangle region.

Doors open at 8pm on Friday April 24, 2009 and the show begins at 9pm.

Tickets are $12 and available for purchase online at www.goldenbeltarts.com. Wine and beer plus freshly made burgers and fries from the newly reopened Only Burger truck will be available all night. Cash only.

This concert kicks off live music at Golden Belt!

Presenting sponsors include Tyler's, The Independent Weekly, Pepsi, Sierra Nevada, and Only Burger.

About The Rosebuds

Kelly and Ivan—The Rosebuds—make music that embodies the fleeting pleasure of youth, not at all fairytale, but magical. Not realistic, but real. Perhaps the way youth actually is. The Rosebuds have released four full-length albums, two 7-inches, an EP, and a digital-only album of remixes. In their newest album, Life Like, catchy melodies house complex lyrical content, but always with the unmistakable nuanced-pop identity of The Rosebuds.

About Golden Belt

Former home to the Golden Belt Manufacturing Company, the 155,000 square foot, seven-acre LEED-registered campus in downtown Durham is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and includes 6 architecturally-significant buildings that house 37 live/work residential lofts, 35 artist studios, a central gallery, a live music venue, outdoor festival space, boutique retail stores, cafes, restaurants, and office space. Golden Belt's opening in July 2008 signals a growing, arts-related critical mass in Durham's downtown that will preserve and enhance the local arts scene. 807 E. Main Street, Durham, NC 27701
